

Beef-trate^{®}

Refer to product labels for complete mixing and feeding directions.

Beef-trate supplements provide protein (including NPN sources – biuret and urea), macro/trace minerals and vitamins for cattle on high-concentrate diets.Biuret – An ADM exclusive source of slow release, non-protein nitrogenProvides readily available sources of ammonia to support microbial population and activities to enhance cattle performanceProvides needed protein, minerals and vitamins; a nutritionally balanced diet will result in better feedlot performanceRumen bypass copper, zinc and manganeseProprietary source of cobalt – A unique source of cobalt, facilitating better forage digestion for more available energy; needed for production of vitamin B₁₂Magnesium carbonate – A more available source of magnesium with a huge perk that it's highly palatable; no more trying to mask the taste of traditional magnesium sourcesSafe to feed to all classes of cattle during all stages of production